Christmas Wish List New Tablets For Everyone

Tablets seem to be this year's Christmas must have gift! But with all the new tablets coming out on the market, which one is right for you? Here's a quick look at a few of this season's hottest electronic gadgets.

Kindle Fire HD- Available in 2 sizes: 7" and 8.9" Prices range from $199 to $499 for the HD line.

The Kindle Fire HD boasts an all new HD display, a front-facing HD camera for taking photos or using Skype, Facebook, or other apps, and is the first tablet with dual-band, dual-antenna WI-FI for 40% faster downloads and streaming. If you are an Amazon Prime member you also get access to Prime Instant Video and the Kindle Owners' Lending Library.

Apple iPad Mini- 7.9" screen size. Prices start at $399.

The iPad Mini has iSight and FaceTime Cameras as well as over 275,000 apps on the App Store. It truly is a miniature version of the iPad.

Microsoft Surface- 10.6" HD screen. Prices start at $499.

The Windows based Surface has a full size USB port and SD card slot. It's cover doubles as a full keyboard and is available in a variety of colors. Key features include Xbox movies, TV shows and music and the ability to have two apps side-by-side onscreen at the same time.

Google Nexus- Available in 2 sizes: 7" and 10". Prices range from $199 to $399.

The Nexus 10 is the newest Google tablet out there. It has a share feature that allows multiple users to have their own homescreen, wallpaper, apps, storage and more. You can video-chat with up to 9 friends at once with Google+ Hangouts. As an Android based device, the Nexus comes ready for Google apps like Gmail, Google Maps, Google+, YouTube and Chrome.

Even kids can get in on the table craze this year. V-Tech's Innotab2 offers a 5" color touch screen, built in digital photo/video camera, and 2GB onboard memory for e-books, learning apps and so much more. Leapster's LeapPad2 also has a 5" color touch screen, built in camera and boasts 4GB memory. Leapster boasts a library of 325+ cartridges and downloadable apps for limitless learning and fun.

HAVILAND KS 67059

Your Haviland Telephone bill is enclosed.

Here is what the new Haviland Telephone bill envelopes will look like.

Haviland Telephone Company is in the process of transitioning to a new billing system. This month, your ability to make credit card payments by phone or online will be impacted. You will also want to keep your eyes open for our new envelope. Additional details are provided below.

One-time Credit card payments. Haviland Telephone will not be able to process one-time credit card and debit card payments from now until Monday morning, December 10. This includes credit card payments made by phone and those made on the eBill system.

Recurring bill payments. Recurring payments will occur as scheduled. If you have a recurring payment set up from your credit or debit card, it WILL occur as scheduled.

New Envelope and Bill format. Customers can expect to see a different style envelope in the mail at the end of December with your January bill. So keep your eyes open for the new format. This month's late notices will also be mailed with the new envelope format.

Large Print Bills Now Available. If you would like your bill in Large Print, please contact our office. Large Print bills will become available with the new bill format in January.

Changes for eBill Customers

- You will no longer be able to make payments or make changes to your payment options using our current eBill platform. You will be able to view your December bill.
- Online payments may resume the morning of Monday, December 10. At this time, you will need to login to the new eBill system to make payments.
- Customers who are currently enrolled in the eBill system will be emailed additional information on how to login to the new system.
- The location to access eBill from our website will not change.
- If you need assistance obtaining your balance, paying your bill, or logging into the new eBill system, please do not hesitate to contact our office.

Haviland Telephone Office Schedule
