Winter Weather Preparedness

Below are pictures taken in Haviland after the Dec. 10th ice storm. Due to these recent storms we are including some winter weather preparedness tips in this issue.

If you are at home:

Know your winter storm and extreme cold terms.

Have a corded phone on hand in case the power goes off. Cordless phones need electricity and WILL NOT WORK when the power goes out.

Assemble a Disaster Supplies Kit containing: First aid kit and essential medications, battery-powered NOAA weather radio, flashlight, extra batteries, canned food, can opener, bottled water (one gallon of water/person/day to last at least 3 days), warm clothing including boots, mittens, and a hat, extra blankets and a corded phone.

If you need to go outside:

Wear several layers of loose fitting, lightweight, warm clothing rather than one layer of heavy clothing. The outer garments should be tightly woven and water repellent. This will actually keep you warmer than a heavy coat.

Wear a hat and mittens, which are warmer than gloves.

Cover your mouth with a scarf to protect your lungs.

You should also assemble a Disaster Supplies Kit for your car. This Kit should include: a shovel, windshield scraper and small broom, flashlight, battery-powered radio, batteries, water, snack food, matches, extra socks, hats and mittens, First aid kit with pocket knife, necessary medications, blankets tow chain or rope, road salt and sand, booster cables, emergency flares and a fluorescent distress flag.

HAPPY New Year!!*

Money for College Kid

A kid called up his mom from his college and asked her for some money, because he ran out of it.

Mom said, "Sure, sweetie. I'll send you some money. You also left your calculus book here when you visited 2 weeks ago. Do you want me to send that up too?"

"Uh, oh yeah, OK," responded the kid.

So Mom wrapped the book along with the checks up in a package, kissed Dad goodbye, and went to the post office to mail the money and the book.

When she gets back, Dad asked, "Well how much did you give the boy this time?"

Mom said, "Oh, I wrote 2 checks, one for $20, and the other for $1000"

"That's $1020!!!" yelled Dad, "Are you crazy???"

"Don't worry hon," Mom said, as she kissed Dad on the top of his bald head, "I taped the $20 check to the cover of his book, but I put the $1000 one somewhere between the pages in Chapter 19!"

Noisy Dog

Bernard, who is noted for his gracious manners, was awakened one morning at 4:44 A.M. by his ringing telephone. "Your dog's barking, and it's keeping me awake," said an angry voice.

Bernard thanked the caller and politely asked his name and number before hanging up. The next morning at precisely 4:44 A.M., Bernard called his neighbor back.

"Good morning, Mr. Williams. Just called to say that I don't have a dog."
